

John McGlashan College

DUNEDIN NEW ZEALAND

Position: Chaplain
 Responsible to : Principal
 Board of Proprietors

Purpose: - to be responsible for developing and maintaining our Christian Special Character
 - to provide leadership and pastoral support for the College community and encourage behaviour which is conducive to enabling strong community spirit

Relationships:

Internal	External
College Leadership team Pastoral Care Network Deans Boarding House staff College staff Students	Parents Other Chaplains Presbytery Presbyterian Schools Chaplaincy Network

Key tasks:

1. Spiritual	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Run College Chapel services as required, as well as on special occasions - Attend College meetings and social functions as required, both in and out of the College - Commit to holding the College in prayer, faithfully and regularly - Maintain and develop the Christian ethos of the College - Support the Religious Education team prayerfully and practically - Provide Chaplaincy service to the wider College community
--------------	---

2. Pastoral Support	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be part of the Student Support Network - Be available with ease, even within time restraints - Support the school counsellor in delivering pastoral support - Attend to pastoral care of staff and students where needed - Assist the Leadership team in developing a positive staff morale - Strengthen relationships with boarders
3. Curriculum	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Demonstrate leadership in teaching and materials used in teaching - Develop innovative teaching programmes, while developing skills for an objective, sympathetic and critical study of religion - Maintain mutually respectful relationships with students
4. Administrative	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be part of the Board of Proprietors - Encourage opportunities for students to become involved in community service - Participate in College Professional Development, where appropriate - Participate in Strategic planning and self-review - Attend and participate in meetings as required